The White House Has Never Been This Funny: POTUS Arrives at Harlequin

Olympia, WA – July 22, 2025 – Harlequin Productions presents POTUS, Or Behind Every Great Dumbass are Seven Women Trying to Keep Him Alive by Selina Fillinger, August 22 - September 7, 2025 at the State Theater. Directed by Emily A. Rollie (Pride and Prejudice, 2024).

When the President unwittingly spins a PR nightmare into a global crisis, the seven brilliant and beleaguered women he relies upon most risk life, liberty, and the pursuit of sanity to keep the commander-in-chief out of trouble. (Any resemblance to past White House shenanigans is purely coincidental.) In a searingly funny Broadway hit, POTUS follows how seven women of dramatically different backgrounds minimize the damage done by male arrogance and political posturing, in an endearing homage to the women who keep things running behind the scenes.

Selina Fillinger's POTUS premiered on Broadway in 2022 to rave reviews, earning three Tony nominations and drawing attention for its all-female cast and whip-smart humor. The play offers a blisteringly funny look behind the scenes of American politics, blending rapid-fire dialogue with farcical mayhem. Dubbed “Broadway’s funniest farce in years” (The Washington Post), it’s a comedy with teeth—one that manages to skewer the absurdity of the political machine while celebrating the women who keep it from flying off the rails.

More than just a comedy, POTUS is a timely and empowering reminder of the competence and resilience of women—particularly in spaces not built for them. An all-female farce remains a rarity in American theater, and POTUS flips the script by putting seven very different women at the center of the story. The powerhouse cast includes long-time returning veterans (Amy Danneker and Edsonya Charles), second timers (Kimberlee Wolfson, Chelsey Sheppard and Mykahla George), and actors making their Harlequin debuts (Kathryn Stahl and Gabby Roarty). A local actor of particular note is Amy Danneker (née Hill), who returns to Harlequin after over a decade on the East Coast, having previously performed in 10 Harlequin productions over 6 seasons, from 2006 – 2010.
